

Take the Chance to Visit the Philippines!

Manila

IF THESE WALLS WOULD TALK

Walking Tour of Historic Intramuros

Almost four years running now, it's the most popular tour in the selection and a definite must for beginners in Philippine History. Take a leisurely afternoon walk around a selection of Intramuros' most stunning structures and take in a humorous analysis of Philippine art, culture, and society from Pre-Hispanic Manila until the present. Ironically irreverent yet informative.

Itinerary: Fort Santiago (Deluxe Tour), San Agustin Church and Museum, Father Blanco's Garden, Casa Manila
Night Tour: Manila Cathedral, Plaza San Luis, San Agustin Church (Not Museum), Sta. Lucia Gate, Intramuros Walls, Ruins of St. Ignatius

THE NORTH BANK!

Walking Tour of Escolta and Quiapo and the North Side of the Pasig River

Rizal Avenue and the Escolta was Manila's premier shopping district until the 1970's when the rise of Makati Commercial Center and the construction of the LRT somewhat diminished their distinction. Now revitalized through efforts by the local government, the area has been cleaned up and rehabilitated as a pedestrian promenade. Most of its mid-20th century historic charm remains and its still the cheapest place in Manila to buy shoes, hardware, appliances, cloths, sex gadgets, jewelry, pearls, beauty queen tiaras, voodoo potions, flowers, handicrafts, videos, and electronics.

Itinerary: Calvo Bldg. and Museum, Escolta Street, Plaza Santa Cruz, Rizal Avenue, Evangelista Street Market, Quiapo Church, Villalobos Street

LIVING LA VIDA IMELDA!

Architectural tour of the Cultural Center of the Philippines Complex as seen through the life and aspirations of the Imelda Romualdez Marcos

It's a tour all about the Philippines in the 1970's and the tumultuous era of Martial Law, bell-bottom jeans, and Miss Universe. It's a little bit disco, a little bit New Society, and completely Imeldific. So come take a trippy trip through National Artist for Architecture Leandro Locsin's finest buildings as we analyze one of the most controversial periods in Philippine history as seen through the life and ambitions of the lady who defined it, Imelda Romualdez Marcos.

Itinerary: The Cultural Center of the Philippines, The Folk Arts Theater, The Coconut Palace

ALL THE WAY DOWN TO CHINATOWN!

Historical Tour of Binondo and San Nicolas

Rediscover Chinatown! Let's take an afternoon stroll and rediscover the charms of one of Manila's oldest districts. We'll ride a horse-drawn coach and check out much of its remaining 19th century architecture. The tour will be capped by a visit to a Buddhist temple and a traditional Chinese pastry shop. This is essentially a free tour. Donations of any amount will be accepted.

Itinerary: Plaza Calderon dela Barca (Ruiz), Binondo Church, Old San Nicolas Streets (Jaboneros, Sevilla, Madrid), The Kipuja Street Temple, Ongpin Street

DO IT YOURSELF TOUR: EVANGELISTA QUE LINDA!

Afternoon tea and window shopping through the flea markets of Evangelista Street in Bangkal, Makati

Check out the flea market paradise of Bangkal: Makati's mecca for shoppers looking for that fabulous find. Bring a bunch of friends and let's go scour for old records, retro furniture, vintage fashions, and whatever funky things might be lurking within its rows and rows of second-hand shops. Lots of wooden mid-20th century architecture and a cute little market adds to the charm of the neighborhood. It is recommended to start and end the tour at Fat Michael's Place, a cute little homegrown neighborhood bistro. Maps of the neighborhood are available at Fat Michael's. Price: Free.

Itinerary: Fat Michael's Restaurant, Evangelista Street, Apolinario Street, Hison Street
